Along Came Polly

To show our love and appreciation for outgoing President Polly Peters, we showered her with trinkets of untold value.

For example, Karen Norton presented Polly with a priceless tiara. Then we serenaded Polly with hand-crafted vuvuzelas in recognition of her ___ birthday on Thursday.

Janet Wright gave Polly a skimpy bikini, which Polly modeled.

John Alefs gave Polly prune juice “To keep things moving along.”

Greg Wright, demonstrating he’s one of Polly’s biggest fans, gave her a battery-powered fan and a manual fan.

Dr. Steve Taylor said that because health care is become self-care, he gave Polly her very own enema kit.

Johnston.

Polly’s Dad, Don, told us how Polly in her youth had to make frequent night-time visits to the restroom. He eventually discovered that Polly had been drinking wine and couldn’t handle her liquor.

And with that, the Noel Anderson era has begun at East Wichita Rotary.

The first sign of maturity is the discovery that the volume knob also turns to the left

You know, Mike O’Byrhim is like the wacky ole uncle you hide in the basement—you can’t control him, you only hope to contain him. At the recent Wichita Country Club member-guest golf tournament, there was a western theme. After each golf shot, Mike yelled, “Yee haw!”

Then Mike attends the dinner wearing a plaid shirt with the sleeves removed, a straw hat, shorts, and cowboy boots. “He won the best dressed award,” Scott Post joked. Mike’s wife, Kathy, avoided him all night. “Look at him,” Kathy said, “you don’t want to stand next to him.”

Having a softening or soothing effect, especially to the skin

Movie review: Grown Ups

It's been interesting watching the growth of Adam Sandler from the days he specialized in making goofy faces and voices with Saturday Night Live until now where he's making goofy faces and voices in the movies. All seriousness aside, Adam has become an entertaining film-maker. Sure the stuff is silly but isn't that the reason you attend his flicks?

In Grown Ups, you follow the teammates from a championship high school basketball team from their youth to middle age (Where many of us used to be!).

It's a solid cast of comedians. Besides Adam, you have your Chris Rock, Kevin James, David Spade, and Rob Schneider.

What we learn, kinda like reality, is that the aging process isn't always kind. We tend to gain weight, lose hair, and have challenges that we didn't experience in our youth.

Those who cannot remember the past will spend a lot of time looking for their cars in mall parking lots

Around 60 years ago, Brian Burrus' parents discovered the beauty of the Lake of the Ozarks. Since then, it's become a family tradition to meet there. Recently 40 of the Burrus clan attended the annual shindig.

Brian, now 45, has missed only one of those events in his life. "When the immediate family marries," Brian said, "it's not necessarily a prenuptial agreement but they are marrying into the Burrus family tradition."

The Burrus', who merge from as far away as Michigan, rent several of the living units at the resort.

Among the activities are a nightly feast provided by one of the families, and the usual boating, fishing, and waterskiing.
